

TRACEY “ARTIST” JONES

FREELANCE ARTIST – Tampa, FL

ABOUT ME

Over the years I have risen in the ranks as a notable Designer, but often find that the status quo limitations of business tend to limit my ability to do outside-the-box creative projects. I began painting to get away from the tight constraints of the business world. Painting taught me to expand my perceptions and to have a keen balance of patience and steadfastness in my work. Blending my skills as a Graphic Designer and as a Painter has broadened my creative portfolio into sculpting, printmaking, digital art, video-making/editing, murals and more.

FUN FACT

As the great-great granddaughter of famous Chester County folk painter, Ida Ellen Ruth Jones, my work draws from a distinct family history of diverse creativity and cultural pride.

FUN FACT

My family often traveled across the world which allowed me to draw artistic perspectives from many cultures and lifestyles.
